NOTIFICATIONS

Ajmer, the December 1955

No. P(4)/3/55-H&S—The following draft of certain rules which the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 20 of the Prize Competitions Act, 1955 (42 of 1955) is hereby published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th January 1956.

The Chief Commissioner, Ajmer, shall consider any objection or suggestion which may be received by it from any person with respect to the draft before the date so specified.

DRAFT RULES

1. Short title—These rules may be called the Ajmer State Prize Competitions Rules, 1955.

2. Definitions—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;

(b) "Licence" means a licence granted under section 6 of the Act; and

(c) (42 of 1955) "the Act" means the Prize Competitions Act, 1955.

3. Form and manner of application for licence—Every application for a licence under sub-section (I) of section 6 of the Act shall be in Form A and shall be either submitted personally, or sent by registered post, by the applicant to the licensing authority.

4. Form and particulars of licence—(1) Every licence shall be in Form B and shall be subject to the conditions and restrictions therein specified and to the provisions of the Act and these rules.

(2) Every such licence shall be affective throughout the entire State.

5. Period of validity of licence and its renewal—Every licence shall be valid initially for a period of one year from the date of its issue and shall lapse on the expiry of that period; but the licensing authority may on application made by the licensee in this behalf in Form A before the expiry of the period of validity of the licence, renew it from time to time for such further period not exceeding one year in each case as may be decided by that authority in its discretion.

6. Fees for grant and renewal of licence—(1) The fee for every licence shall be—

(a) Rs. 25 where an entry fee is charged in respect of a prize competition; and

(b) Rs. 10 where no such entry fee is charged.

(2) Such fee shall be paid by the applicant into a Government treasury or Sub-treasury or in the Reserve Bank of India on Government account or paid in cash or sent by money order to the licensing authority.

(3) The fee for the renewal of a licence shall be one-half of the fee leviable for the grant of the original licence.

(4) No application for the grant or renewal of a licence shall be entertained unless the amount of the fee in each case is paid or sent as aforesaid provided that if the licence is not granted or renewed, the applicant shall be entitled to a refund of the fee paid by him.

7. Limitation for appeals—Every appeal to the State Government under section 16 of the Act shall be preferred within a period of thirty days from the date of the decision of the licensing authority.

8. Bar or transfer of licence—No licensee shall sell or otherwise transfer the licence granted to him or enter into any partnership with any person for the purpose of promoting or conducting a prize competition or prize competitions under such licence.

9. Loss of licence—When a licence is lost or destroyed, a duplicate copy thereof may be furnished to the licensee on payment of a fee of—

- (a) Rs. 10 for a licence where an entry fee is levied in the prize competition; and
- (b) Rs. 5 for a licence where no such entry fee is levied.

10. Production of licence on end—Every person acting under or holding a licence shall produce the same whenever called upon to do so by the licensing authority or by an officer duly empowered by the licensing authority in this behalf.

11. Entry fee—(1) Where an entry fee is charged in respect of a prize competition, such fee shall be paid in money only and not in any other manner.

(2) The maximum amount of an entry fee shall not exceed Re. 1 where the total value of the prize or prizes to be offered is rupees one thousand but not less than rupees five hundred; and in all other cases the maximum amount of an entry fee shall be at the following rates, namely:—

- (a) as. -/8/- where the total value of the prize or prizes to be offered is less than rupees five hundred but not less than rupees two hundred and fifty; and
- (b) as. -/4/- where the total value of the prize or prizes to be offered is less than rupees two hundred and fifty.

12. Maintenance of Register—Every licensee shall maintain in respect of each prize competition for which a licence has been granted a register in Form C and shall, for the purpose of ensuring that not more than two thousand entries are received for scrutiny for each such competition, take the following steps, that is to say, shall—

- (a) arrange to receive all the entries only at the place of business mentioned in the licence;
- (b) serially number the entries according to their order of receipt;
- (c) post the relevant particulars of such entries in the register in Form C as and when the entries are received and in any case not later than the close of business on each day; and
- (d) accept for scrutiny only the first two thousand entries as they appear in the register in Form C and ignore the remaining entries, if any, in cases where no entry fee is charged and refund the entry fee received in respect of the entries in excess of the first two thousand to the respective senders thereof in cases where an entry fee has been charged after deducting the cost (if any) of refund.

13. Keeping books of accounts—The accounts referred to in Section 7 of the Act shall be maintained according to the following provisions namely:—

- (a) there shall be a cash book in Form D and all transactions relating to each prize competition shall be entered in the appropriate sections of the cash book;
- (b) the cash book, both on the receipt side and on the expenditure side, shall be written up day by day, and at the end of each day's transaction the total of receipt and expenditure for the day and the progressive total receipts and expenditure since the commencement of the prize competition to which the entries relate, shall be struck; and
- (c) at the close of each prize competition an abstract of the total receipts and expenditure on account thereof, including the expenditure on the award of prizes shall be exhibited in the cash book itself; and where prizes are awarded to competitors who have submitted free entry coupons, the fact shall be clearly stated and full particulars of such successful competitors shall be clearly and separately shown in the cash book.

14. Furnishing statement of accounts—Every licensee shall, within 15 days of the close of each month, submit to the licensing authority, a return in Form E of the total sum received and the total expenditure incurred by such licensee during the month.

15. Production of register and cash book for inspection—Every licensee shall make available for the inspection of the licensing authority or such officer as that authority may nominate in this behalf, at all reasonable times and on demand, the register in Form C, the cash book in Form D and all vouchers and such other papers as may have a bearing on the conduct of the prize competition.

16. Committee to scrutinise prize competitions—(1) As soon as may be after a licence has been granted, the licensing authority shall constitute a committee for the purpose of scrutinising the conduct and result of each prize competition that may be promoted under the licence.

(2) The committee shall consist of a chairman who shall be the licensing authority or any officer of the State Government nominated by the licensing authority and not more than five other members of whom the licensee shall be one and the rest shall be non-officials of standing in the local area concerned, to be appointed by the licensing authority.
